Newsletter No 6

Hi Members,

This is the final Newsletter for the 2008 to 2009 session.

Exchange Film Night with Weymouth Cine & Video Club March 30th.2009

16 members enjoyed an exceptional evening of films provided by the Weymouth Cine & Video Club. The programme was very varied from comedy to documentaries. Comedy is very difficult to film but we were treated to some exceptional funny films, we particularly enjoyed "Ted " the gardener and will now look at sprouts in a very different way.

Dodsworth Cup for the best documentary April 20th. 2009

The Dodsworth Cup attracted 4 entries,

Rock Walk Revival by Jim Gill.

Holy Horrors by John Noake.

The Making of Bury Me by John Blanchard.

Sir Frank Whittle by Gordon Taylor.

The result was,

1st. Rock Walk Revival.

2nd.Holy Horrors.

3rd.Sir Frank Whittle.

The meeting was attended by 18 members.

Mike Baker a reporter from the Herald Express also attended and subsequently produced a full page article on the Club which was favourably received by members.

Sunday Afternoon Outdoor Filming May 10th.2009

7 members attended the outdoor filming at Stover Country Park. We were fortunate to have an introductory lecture by Rob one of the wardens. We were also fortunate to have access to parts of the Park normally off limits. The weather was very good for filming, the results were shown at a following evening.

Novice Cup & Thompson Trophy. May 18th. 2009

20 members attended.

Ivan Andrews film Barbara Ann was the only entry for the Novice Cup.

The Thompson Trophy was competed for by only two films, A Walk on the South West Coastal Path by Don Adams and Deckchair by Eric Hill. The winner was Deckchair.

A selection of the footage taken at Stover Park was shown after the tea break together with the first film taken by Eric Hill. of a trip to Canada and the USA.

Savage Cup June 1st. 2009

The Savage Cup attracted 7 entries.

Waters of Ireland by Maggie Sullivan.
